

As an administrator and a K-4 teacher, I designed a comprehensive program for our kids. Initially, I was using randomly chosen coloring pages. When I was introduced to BibleColors Sunday Lectionary drawings, I was thrilled to use this in our program. Now I don't have to search, it's all ready and available to print and copy when I need them. This saves me a lot of time. Our kids love coloring and reading the short passage. Then they take it home to discuss it with their parents. Our Wednesday classes prepare our kids for the upcoming Sunday, and that's incredibly valuable for their involvement. BibleColors drawings are easy to understand for this age group. It's a hit with our kids.

a subscription service to color Sunday readings

As a teacher for 40+ years, using BibleColors sheets can enhance a child's learning. The finished art brings the Gospel to life. After our "Children's Liturgy" the children can quietly settle in by their parents and color. Coloring is soothing to the spirit. Unlike coloring books, BibleColors drawings, with the key verse from the Sunday Bible passage on it, enriches the discussions at school and at home.

MT 2:1-2

"Go and search diligently for the child. When you have found him, bring me word, that I too may go and do him homage."

January 3, 2016 Gospel Reading
(MT 2:1-12)

When Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of King Herod, behold, magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem, saying, "Where is the newborn king of the Jews? We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage." When King Herod heard this, he was greatly troubled, and all Jerusalem with him...

JN 2:1-11

"Woman, how does your concern affect me?" His mother said to the servers, "Do whatever he tells you."

January 17, 2016 Gospel Reading
(JN 2:1-11)

...His mother said to the servers, "Do whatever he tells you." Now there were six stone water jars there for Jewish ceremonial washings, each holding twenty to thirty gallons. Jesus told them, "Fill the jars with water." So they filled them to the brim...
